NOISES OFF

August 12 - August 28, 2016

By Michael Frayn • Directed by Dennis Murphy

In this play within-a-play, the opening night performance of the farce Nothing On is just hours away, and as the cast stumbles through their final dress rehearsal, things couldn't be going any worse. With lines being forgotten, love triangles unraveling and sardines flying everywhere, it's complete pandemonium... and we haven't even reached intermission! Can the cast pull their act together on the stage even if they can't behind the scenes?

the Lion in winter

October 7 - October 23, 2016

By James Goldman • Directed by Francis Rtm Boyle

Sibling rivalry, adultery and dungeons – The Lion in Winter is a modern day classic. Comedic in tone, dramatic in action, the play tells the story of the Plantagenet family, who are locked in a free for all of competing ambitions to inherit a kingdom. The queen, and wealthiest woman in the world, Eleanor of Aquitaine, has been kept in prison since raising an army against her husband, King Henry II. Let out only for holidays, the play centers around the inner conflicts of the royal family as they fight over both a kingdom, as well as King Henry's paramour during the Christmas of 1183. As Eleanor says, "every family has its ups and downs," and this royal family is no exception.

Neil Simon's the odd COUPLE

February 24 - March 12, 2017

By Neil Simon • Directed by Ray Persing

A classic comedy from Pulitzer Prize and multiple Tony Award-winning American playwright and screenwriter Neil Simon. Suddenly single after his wife throws him out on the street, despairing journalist Felix reluctantly accepts the hospitality of his buddy Oscar, a sportswriter and Grade A slob. Oscar's sprawling apartment on Manhattan's Upper West Side would once have been palatial – but after his own recent divorce, he lives in the midst of an ever-growing midden of domestic detritus. A big spender, a problem gambler, a hedonist, a boozier and a rake, he's everything the neurotically neat Felix is not. They're the best of pals, but living together is proving a bit of a stretch.

Dan Goggin's Nuncrackers

December 2 - December 18, 2016

By Dan Goggin • Directed by Lizanne Ingram

The Nunsense Christmas Musical, NUNCRACKERS, is presented as the first TV special taped in the Cable Access Studio built by Reverend Mother in the convent basement. It stars the nuns you love, plus Father Virgil, and four of Mount Saint Helen's most talented students. Featuring all new songs this show is filled with typical NUNSENSE humor, some of your favorite carols, and a "Secret Santa" audience participation. We're certain this NUNSENSE Christmas Show will make you laugh, and maybe tug at your heartstrings. It's the perfect way to insure that your holiday season is merry and bright!

Always... Patsy Cline

Created and originally directed by Ted Swindley - based on a true story.

April 28 - May 14, 2017

By Ted Swindley • Directed by Robert Weidle

Always...Patsy Cline is more than a tribute to the legendary country singer, but a touching, humorous, and insightful tale about an unlikely friendship between the star and her biggest fan. The show is based on a true story about Cline's relationship with a devotee from Houston named Louise Seger, who befriended the singer in a Texas honky-tonk in 1961, and continued a correspondence with Cline until her untimely death. The musical play, complete with down-home country humor, genuine emotion, and even some audience participation, includes dozens of Patsy's unforgettable hits such as "Crazy," "I Fall to Pieces," "Sweet Dreams," and "Walking After Midnight." Don't miss this captivating gem of a show, which has received glowing praise from audiences across America.
