ABOUT TDW: The Drama

Workshop has been bringing quality theater to the Cincinnati community for 60 years. The group has been performing since its first show in 1954 - The Night of January 16th. Everything from classics like The Glass Menagerie, comedies like You Can't Take it With You and contemporary dramas like Pride's Crossing. It is one of the longest running theater groups in the Cincinnati area. In 2012, TDW purchased and remodeled The Glenmore Bowl, an historic bowling alley in the heart of Cheviot. Rechristened, The Glenmore Playhouse, it is now the home to the theatre group.

The Drama Workshop
Summer Theatre Arts Program

Week of July 7 - 11, 2014

Session I (ages 5 - 8)

Session II (ages 9 - 14)

The Drama Workshop is proud to offer its Summer Theatre Arts program to interested children from ages 5 - 14. Two instructors with over 50 years of theatrical experience each, Karen Vanover (ages 5 - 8) and James Burton (ages 9 - 14) will lead the children through this week-long camp with individualized instruction and a curriculum that is adapted to the age and abilities of the children.

Programs take place at The Glenmore Playhouse at 3716 Glenmore Ave Cheviot, Ohio 45211. Snack and water or drink is included.

At the end of the week, the campers will make a 30 minute presentation. Session I presentation begins at 11:30 a.m. and Session II presentation begins at 3:30 p.m. A small reception follows the presentation. The presentation and reception is free to family and friends.

Space is Limited: Register Today.
